

COMPANY

- MR Site Services Limited was established in 2005 by pioneering aluminium roof welding specialist Melvyn Rowberry
- MRSS specialise in bespoke roofing systems and have very large structures amongst their portfolio including the Terminal 5 building at Heathrow, Diamond Synchrotron, Cork Airport and many more.

OVERCOMING UNCERTAINTIES

- Market research
- Pooling of technical resources and knowledge within the company.
- Selective purchase of equipment for testing
- Hiring of specialist contractors
- Building proof of concept and prototype machinery
- Significant trials and testing
- Re-designing and re-modelling

TECHNOLOGICAL ADVANCES

- Develop products that are designed to increase the practical lifetime of industrial buildings, reduction of maintenance and increase in reliability
- Develop aperture products that can be deployed safely on to maintain waterproof properties of flat roofs

MSC Associates

TECHNOLOGICAL UNCERTAINTIES

- Long standing difficulties of fabrication using aluminium.
- No precedent for design manufacture of a specific product range
- No historical research material No cost effective existing plant, tooling process or machinery available
- No guarantee the products would meet economic imperative

Tax Relief Received £77K

“Working with the guys is like the ‘Ronseal’ effect – what is stated on the tin is what they deliver’. Their assistance has had a fantastic impact to the business”

Melvyn Rowberry, MD of Company